Policy for Issuing Antigua and Barbuda Diplomatic and Official Passports

Government of Antigua and Barbuda

Policy on Diplomatic and Official Passports

Increasing the level of transparency, accountability and legitimacy of diplomatic appointments

The Government of Antigua and Barbuda, as a member-state of the international community, adheres to obligations under international law. These obligations include the conduct of international relations in conformity with international treaties.

The Government recognizes that threats to global well-being have altered and intensified, particularly in relation to terrorist activities and organized crime.

In keeping with its international obligations, and being conscious of the importance of preserving the integrity, standing and value of Diplomatic and Official Passports of Antigua and Barbuda, in March 2017 when new electronic passports, containing biometric data, will be ready for issue, the Government will recall all existing diplomatic and official passports, except those held by (i) the Governor-General and spouse; (ii) the Prime Minister and spouse; (iii) Ministers of the Government and spouses and (iv) diplomats accredited by formal agreement to other states and international and regional organizations, and their spouses and dependent children.

Thereafter, diplomatic and official passports will be issued and monitored in accordance with the following guidelines:

Categories of Entitlement for Diplomatic Passports

- (i) Governor-General and spouse
- (ii) Governor General's Deputy and spouse
- (iii) Prime Minister and spouse
- (iv) Cabinet Ministers and spouses
- (v) President of the Senate and spouse
- (vi) Speaker of the House of Representatives and spouse
- (vii) Leader of the Opposition and spouse
- (viii) Permanent Secretary in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and spouse
- (ix) Ambassadors, High Commissioners, and officers of diplomatic rank,

Appointment of Non-national Ambassadors-at-Large, Special Envoys and Honorary Consuls

(To be granted on a limited basis to increase the global reach of the state)

The appointments of non-national Ambassadors-at-Large, Special Envoys and Honorary Consuls shall be a decision of Cabinet which shall give consideration to such appointments only in circumstances where such appointments will further the objectives of the state or bring added value to Antigua and Barbuda's international or bilateral relationship with other countries.

In order to manage the risks associated with these appointments, the appointment shall be for a maximum of two years, subject to renewal upon satisfactory performance.

With respect to Honorary Consuls, their appointments shall be in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations 1963 to which Antigua and Barbuda is a signatory, and they shall not be entitled to diplomatic or official passports, given that they are nationals or residents of the receiving State. Their immunities and privileges shall be consistent with the law and practice of the state to which they are appointed following the establishment of consular relations between Antigua and Barbuda and the receiving State by mutual consent.

Honorary Consuls shall also be required to: (i) establish a suitable Honorary Consulate with appropriate staff, including but not limited to nationals of Antigua and Barbuda either provided from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or approved by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and (ii) maintain a vehicle for use on official business where appropriate guidelines set by the receiving state shall be implemented, including identifying plates.

Criteria for Appointment of Non-national Ambassadors-at-Large, Special Envoys and Honorary Consuls:

Non-national persons considered for appointments in these three categories must: (a) be of good reputation and proven competence; (b) not have any criminal record; (c) possess the skills necessary to function in the designated role and (d) submit to rigorous and satisfactory due diligence checks.

They shall also be required to: submit all necessary information and documentation for enhanced due diligence process; provide an outline of planned activities for their task, emphasizing their capacity to bring benefits to holders of Antigua and Barbuda Diplomatic and Official Passports to those countries with which it has formal diplomatic relations.

Transparency and Disclosure

A list of all diplomatic passports shall be tabled annually in Parliament and released publicly.

In keeping with its adherence to transparency and disclosure, the Government of Antigua and Barbuda declares this policy publicly.
